

Interested in booking a Workshop or Seminar?

Hume Riverina Community Legal Service (HRCLS) staff are available to run the Community Law Workshops and Seminars for:

- Staff training & development
- Community/neighbourhood centres
- Tertiary student groups
- Secondary student groups
- Other interested public forums

Just make an advanced booking with HRCLS, organise the group and the venue, and our expert staff will come to you fully equipped to run the workshop or seminar of your choice.

For small groups for 8 to 10 participants, we may be able to run the workshop or seminar at the premises of Upper Murray Family Care, if you would prefer.

The Community Law Workshops and seminars are FREE to the community.

The HRCLS, like many community based organisation, has limited resources, so advanced bookings are essential.

For further information or to make an advanced booking, contact HRCLS on 1800 918 377 or (02) 6057 5000.

Produced by the:-

Hume Riverina Community Legal Service
12 Stanley Street
PO Box 31
WODONGA VIC 3689

hume riverina
community legal service

Community Law Workshop & Seminar Options 2010

All About the Hume Riverina Community Legal Service (HRCLS) & Community Legal Education

A Seminar outlining:

- A history of Community Law;
 - How Community Law works at the HRCLS;
 - Services and types of work provided by the HRCLS; and
 - Client rights and eligibility criteria.
-

Life Planning

The Wills, Powers of Attorney and Enduring Guardianship Workshop provides up-to-date information about the need for these documents and how to complete them.

Young People & the Law

An interactive seminar for young people on a range of issues including consumer and credit debt, police powers, discrimination and their rights and responsibilities.

Family Violence

Topics include:

- What is an intervention order;
- How to apply for an intervention order; and
- the effect that an intervention order has on applications in

Family Law

This workshop provides information on all aspects of Family Law including separation, divorce and issues relating to children and property settlements or can be tailored to suit the audience for example, grandparent carers and their rights.

Law Week

During National Law Week the HRCLS runs a variety of activities including CLE Seminars, Court Tours and Shopping Centre Displays.

Human Rights

In conjunction with our law reform project of lobbying for a Charter of Rights in NSW we can give a talk that covers issues surrounding Human Rights and provide an overview of Human Rights in an Australian context.

Specialist Legal Services

Visiting Specialist Legal Services focus on their area of expertise, examples of talks are VCAT - Civil Claims, Planning Appeals & Tenancy Appeals, Uniform Consumer Credit Code and Family Violence .

Seminars & Workshops on Request

If you have an idea for a workshop or seminar that you would like HRCLS to run for your organisation or client group, please contact our office to discuss your idea with one of our workers.