

Introduction to the Public Housing Fact Sheets

The Flemington and Kensington Community Legal Centre (FKCLC) in conjunction with the Victoria Law Foundation (VLF) have developed a range of fact sheets aimed at public housing tenants. These fact sheets have been specifically developed to assist public housing tenants deal with common public tenancy problems.

The ultimate aim of the project was to deliver a source of information to public housing tenants that can be used to assist in solving common problems. There was no intention for the fact sheets to serve as an alternative to advocacy programs or community legal centres. They are merely a tool to assist public housing tenants advocate on their own behalf when external assistance is limited. The fact sheets will also be an invaluable source of information for public housing advocates.

The fact sheets cover seven topics and have been translated into Arabic, Chinese, and Vietnamese. Fact sheets will be posted to individuals or organisation for free. Please note that FKCLC will place these fact sheets on our community law website by the end of December 2006. This will allow you to download forms as required.
