

Planning for a secure future

Whether you are caring for the elderly, starting a family or contemplating retirement, keeping informed on essential legal information can help you to make the right decisions when planning for the future.

Presented by the LIV, with support from the Victoria Law Foundation, this seminar is designed to meet a growing need for elder law information. Issues to be covered include the importance of Powers of Attorney and drafting a Will no matter what your age or stage of life. The LIV provides members of the public with a range of information, services and resources to enable them to better access and understand the justice system and the law.
